EXPLORE THE AREA

If we have learned anything from the last three years it's that vacations really do matter. We understand that precious time and shared experiences with family and friends are to be treasured. Discover authentic, awe-inspiring experiences hosted by River Expeditions' exceptional staff who share their passion for the outdoors by engaging, encouraging and empowering—where you're heard, not herded.

While you'll find plenty to do at River Expeditions, we encourage you to explore the area's whimsical shops, hip eateries and attractions including state and national parks. Let us curate custom adventures in our outdoor playground based on your schedule, interests and budget. And we know that paying more for a vacation doesn't make it more fun, just more expensive. After all, sometimes the road less traveled isn't a road at all.

ADVENTURE FOR ALL SEASONS

River Expeditions offers adventures daily from May through October. Different seasons provide very different river experiences as the dynamics of the river and the rapids themselves are transformed.

SPRING rafting is a thrill ride with typically higher water levels in May, making the waves, holes and rapids more intense creating the biggest whitewater of the season.

SUMMER months offer warmer weather and water temperatures June through August, allowing the opportunity to swim, “surf,” and soak up the sun while paddling.

FALL foliage is a glorious backdrop among the New and Gauley River Gorges as great whitewater remains a constant in September and October.

WINTER months offer quiet retreats at River Expeditions since our luxury cabins are open year round. We’re happy to help plan your winter getaway with nearby skiing, snowboarding and tubing areas.

LOWER NEW RIVER

This is River Expeditions’ signature rafting trip, artfully blending history, natural beauty, culture and excitement to create the classic whitewater adventure. Discover why people keep coming back to raft the New River Gorge time after time—they know that every trip is different, each one thrilling, fun and unforgettable.

The Lower New River Gorge alternates from rapids to calm pools, allowing paddlers a break between the action. As the gorge narrows, water tumbles over huge boulders forming big, splashy waves and moderate to difficult rapids. You’ll encounter giant holes, roller coaster waves and plenty of adrenaline-filled whitewater, plus extras like Jump Rock, Swimmer’s Rapid and even surfing...West Virginia style! This trip ends beneath the awe-inspiring and world famous New River Gorge Bridge.

The Lower New River is commonly referred to as “The Grand Canyon of the East,” and among the most popular whitewater trips in the country. It’s just one reason West Virginia is renowned as America’s Best Whitewater.*

LOWER GAULEY RIVER

The Gauley River National Recreation Area includes 25 miles of the Gauley River. This swift, winding river and its narrow gorge are protected by the National Park Service.

This renowned river is consistently ranked among the top rivers in the world by expert paddlers, based on its technical rapids, scenic quality and inaccessibility. The fall Lower Gauley is considered a moderate adventure and combines exhilarating rapids with magnificent scenery from start to finish.

This whitewater trip feels like a watery roller coaster ride—a favorite among many paddlers. It is set in a pristine wilderness which allows you to marvel at the rugged canyon walls and grandeur between rapids, numbering over 35 with colorful names like Pure Screaming Hell, Canyon Doors, Koontz Flume and Heaven Help Us.

The Lower Gauley is characterized by big whitewater, invigorating rapids and breathtaking scenery. This adventure is well suited for enthusiastic first time rafters and is often the next step after rafting the Lower New River. The Lower Gauley is also the perfect prelude to the intense Upper Gauley.

UPPER GAULEY RIVER

The formidable Upper Gauley River is a high impact adventure, recommended only for serious whitewater enthusiasts with previous paddling experience. It consistently ranks as one of the most uniquely challenging whitewater trips in world! This is also the most extreme trip offered by River Expeditions.

On this complex stretch of whitewater you'll navigate tight, technical rapids, steep drops, narrow chutes, rocky ledges and crashing waves which demand precise maneuvering and responsiveness. The intense gradient and volume of water creates nonstop action from start to finish—major rapids like Pillow Rock, Insignificant, Lost Paddle, Iron Ring, and Sweet's Falls test your teamwork and keep the adrenaline pumping.

Enjoy River Expeditions' exclusive access to the sunny side of Sweet's Falls where hot, grilled lunch awaits as you take a well earned break from paddling. This is the best vantage point to watch other rafters negotiate the rapids. Dramatic views amid brilliant fall foliage highlight this vigorous adventure.

GO BIGGER

If you’re looking for an even bigger rush, there are two options for small raft upgrades - ‘Wildside’ and ‘Extreme Wildside.’ Smaller rafts are more responsive, providing superior performance and increased maneuverability to push the limits of our sport. This aggressive approach is for experienced, enthusiastic paddlers who want to see the river from a completely different perspective. On the Gauley River, this trip is recommended for those over the age of 18, with prior class V+ rafting experience, excellent health, and the ability to calmly respond to adverse and difficult whitewater situations.

In some cases, families or small groups want to experience the river in a more personal setting and choose a smaller raft, without the added adventure. When reserving a small raft, please specify whether you want a more challenging ride or simply prefer to maintain closeness with those in your party.
